DETAILED ACTION

1. As of entry of the amendment filed on 09/15/2006. Claims 1 and 7 have new matter, claims 4 and 10 have been cancel by Applicant.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The new matter was found in claims 1 and 7, in specification, paragraph [0038], Applicant discloses, "or a user defined patent classification", not "and a user defined patent classification".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 2163

4. Claims 1-2, 7, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zinda (20040015481).

(Claims 1 and 7)

Zinda discloses in figures 1-10, and 18, a system for generating structured information reports, the system being programmed to generate structured information reports for analysis, being deployed on a three-layer information system, and comprising: a parameter obtaining module for obtaining data input by a user, the data comprising downloading parameters; a downloading module for downloading data from a remote database server in accordance with the downloading parameters; a variable defining module for defining variables of a structured information report in accordance with the data input by the user; a column generating module for generating columns/rows of the structured information report in accordance with the variables of the structured information report; and a report generating module for adding the downloaded data to the structured information report (paragraph [0015], [0027], [0059], [0060], [0062], [0064], [0070], [0084], [0088]).

(Claims 2 and 9)

Zinda discloses in figures 1-10, the downloaded data being patent data.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3-6, 8, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zinda (20040015481) in view of Lee (20050119995).

(Claim 3)

Zinda discloses substantially all of the elements, except the data on a patent classification mode, a time mode, and a time range. Lee teaches the class search, and date restriction (paragraph [0005],[0019], [[0021], [0029], [0030], [0033], [0036], [0040])). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have data on a patent classification mode, a time mode, and a time range, because it will help to narrow down the search.

(Claims 4 and 10)

Lee teaches the patent classification being the international patent classification, the United States of America patent classification, or a user defined patent classification (paragraph [0019]).

(Claim 5)

Lee teaches the time mode being a patent filing date mode, a patent publishing date mode, or a patent issuing date mode (paragraph [0019], [0033]).

(Claims 6 and 8)

Lee further teaches a report sending module for sending the structured information report to a designated user (paragraph [0034]).

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
